PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I am a dedicated Public Health Scientist with a strong foundation in occupational health and safety, logistics, and research. Throughout my career, I've enjoyed tackling diverse challenges—whether that means implementing safety protocols on the ground, coordinating fleet operations, managing retail inventory, or conducting community health research. I'm passionate about keeping workplaces safe, improving operational efficiency, and contributing to public health initiatives. I am certified by the World Health Organization (WHO) and OSHAcademy, and I bring a reliable, adaptable, and detail-oriented approach to everything I do.
